

ELEMENTARY RESOURCES

Elementary Resources

- Kindergarten Supplementary Native Studies Materials and Teacher's Guide
- K-3 Booklets:
  - ❖ Changes
  - ❖ Legends
  - ❖ Occupations
- Big Books (7 titles)

Kindergarten Guide

Mission Statements

Vision:

“programs reflect local culture and history and are designed to provide quality opportunities for all students.”

Belief:

that students learn best and experience success when “the language and culture of the community influences programs in school.”

Kindergarten Guide

This guide has been designed to supplement the existing Manitoba Social Studies Curriculum Guide for Kindergarten by integrating a northern and native component reflecting aboriginal perspectives of both the past and the present.

A black and white line drawing of a man and a woman. The man is on the left, wearing a shirt and tie, holding a walking stick. The woman is on the right, shown in profile, wearing a simple top. They appear to be in conversation.

Me and My Mosoom

Me and my Mosoom
pick berries in the bush,
We go hunting for rabbits.

Me and my Mosoom drink tea,
and we talk.

Me and my Mosoom watch TV,
We go for boat rides,
and ski-doo rides.
We burn the long grass at his house.

Me and my Mosoom go for walks,
on the road.

Me and my Mosoom have fun together,
I love my Mosoom,

by Candace Clarke, Grade 3M Jack River School.

Changes in travel

canoe

dogteam

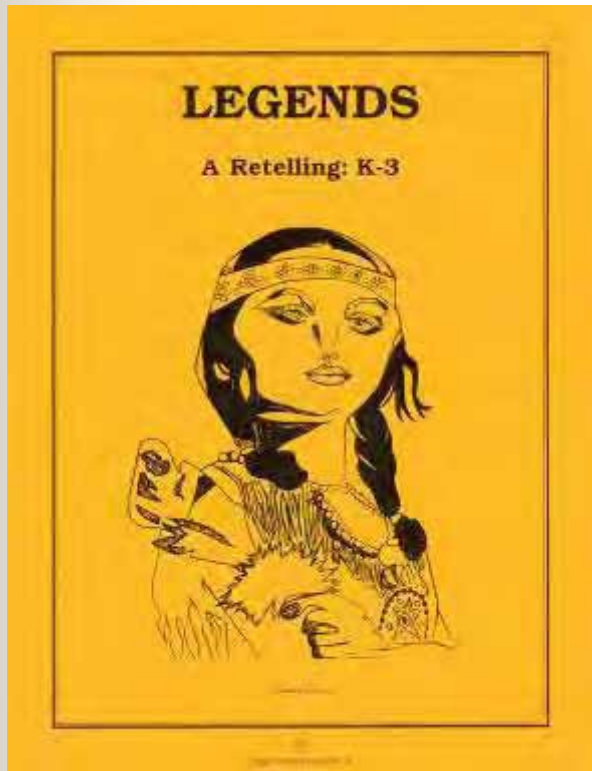

horses

Legends

How can one learn from legends?

- explain past history
- to teach values and beliefs
- explain the behavior of humans and animals
- provide entertainment through humour and exaggeration
- promote ecological and environmental awareness and practices
- promote appreciation for the performing arts through skits and plays.

Occupations

Sample page

Elementary Reading Big Books

- Achikosis and the Weetigo
- Big Jim Makes Some Friends
- Clara Sees A Moose
- I'll Eat Them All Up
- James Snares A Rabbit
- Legend of Wesakaychak and the Loon
- Sydney and the Bear

Available from

Library Services
Frontier School
Division
1402 Notre Dame Ave.
WPG MB R3E 3G5

